

I am very bothered by the donation of $325,000 of air time by Papas Telecasting Co. to republican candidates.

They are using public air waves and are obligated by law to serve the public interest and their actions are legally questionable.

It seems to me to be an abuse of its privilege, being access to the public air waves, and not serving the people.

I am afraid it sounds like more corporate manipulation by the powerful in this country.